Symbiosis has been imparting quality education in various fields of Management, Law, Humanities, Engineering, Health Sciences, Computer Science, Media, Communication, Design and Architecture. With an objective of empowering women and contributing to the requirement of women in the medical profession (only 17% of allopathic doctors are women), Symbiosis has established a medical college exclusively for women - 'Symbiosis Medical College for Women (SMCW)' under the Faculty of Health Sciences. 150 girl students will be admitted from the academic year 2020.

SMCW & SUHRC have been established as constituents of SIU. They are thus integral to the quality and standards already existing in an A++ accredited University. The medical college has a strong focus on academics and research. The Symbiosis University Hospital and Research Centre (SUHRC) which has state-of-the-art infrastructure and latest equipment will be the attached hospital. SMCW will produce women doctors who are empathetic, ethical and compassionate. This college is a tribute to the first lady doctor of India - Anandi Gopal Joshi.

Some of distinguishing features of the SMCW include
